REGISTRAR'S DECISION

Having heard the Applicants and considered the Applicants' submissions on the 29th day of November 2011, the decision of the Registrar of Trade Marks is as follows:

We are of view that the mark is not sufficiently distinctive for registration prima facie and neither does the evidence lodged establish that the mark has acquired distinctiveness through use as the bulk of the evidence of use filed is evidence which is subsequent to the date of the application.

In light of the above, the above application is refused.
