

Trade Mark

4 months, if no objections and opposition; longer if application faces objections or opposition

*Before filing an international application:

- the applicant must have an application or a registration in Singapore on which to base his international application (“Basic application/registration”);
- the goods and/or services in the applicant's international application must be identical or narrower than those claimed in the basic application/registration; and
- the applicant must be a resident or national of Singapore, or have a real and effective industrial or commercial establishment in Singapore.