

Protection of Red Cross Emblems

(Circular No. 11/2015, dated 22 Dec 2015)

As a signatory to the Geneva Convention, Singapore is obliged to protect the following emblems of the Red Cross from unauthorised use. Protection for the Red Cross emblems is set out in the Geneva Conventions Act and the Trade Marks Rules.

Red Crescent Emblem	Red Cross Emblem	Red Crystal Emblem	Red Lion and Sun Emblem

The Registrar will object to trade mark applications consisting of or containing these emblems or emblems closely resembling them.

To overcome any objections raised, applicants will have to seek consent from the Singapore Red Cross Society for the use and registration of the trade mark application.
